There must be a grain of truth in the saying that "misery loves company." Cal. Post keeps right on hunting misery for Brother Jolly.

A Democratic newspaper with seven Republican stockholders is something a little out of the ordinary. Truly, we see strange things when we haven't seen a gun.

Governor Jennings has vetoed the joint resolution passed by the Legislature authorizing United States Senators to be elected by the people. Couple this fact to his expressed sentiments on primary elections, and you may catch the drift of his future plans and ambitions.

"DEAR OLD GROVER"?

The attempt of Sinclair McKelway, the editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, to force on the Democratic party the consideration of Grover Cleveland as its candidate for the Presidency next year is the far cry of a disgraced mugwump politician seeking to attract attention to himself by the process of supposed transcendentalism in another. In 1896 McKelway was a still-walker in the Palmer and Buckner side-show, and four years later he became a noted log-roller in the McKinley camp.
As for Grover Cleveland, there is about as much likelihood of his being the standard-bearer next year as there is that he will become Emperor of China.

No matter who the Democrats put up, or upon what basis they reorganize for the struggle, one thing is apparently sure and certain, and that is—they cannot elect any man who bolted the tickets put up by the party in 1896 and 1900.

FORDS VS. STETSON

Last Monday, in the U. S. District Court at Jacksonville, the attorney of John F.
Ford and Mrs. Lena B. Mathis filed their declaration of particulars setting forth the grounds of their damage suits against Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stetson for slanders. The amounts sued for aggregate $1,000,000.

It is the most voluminous document ever filed in any court in this State. It is type written, and is estimated to contain 454,000 words, and covers 1,400 pages. If the case is ever pushed to trial all this will have to be read in court.

The questions involved in these suits are well known to every reader of this paper, which makes it unnecessary for us to detail them here. It is pretty generally believed by those familiar with the inner phases of the case, which will necessarily be forced to the surface, that Dr.
Ford is too shrewd to ever allow it to come to trial.

TWO REMARKABLE MEN

When Theodore Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland clasped hands at St. Louis the other day it was a meeting of two of the most unique and remarkable men of this generation—two men who resemble each other in many important characteristics.
They are both bright and original.

Both have an abundance of pugnacity and individuality.
Both superlatively dogmatic and profoundly egotistic.

Both are disciples of Fiatism, though on different lines of application—the one tending toward military despotism and the other toward civil anarchy.

In politics, both are schismatics.
As political leaders, the one is an interesting experiment, while the other has shown an egregious failure.

One attaches to himself the Cebonair and harum-scarum element, while the other attracts the selfish, sordid, cynical dyspeptics of every political creed.

Neither of them is a statesman, though each thinks himself the one oracle of the age—the "I Am" of collective wisdom.

DOUBTFUL PIETY

A pious old woman underwent an experience on Sunday last hereabouts unknown in the history of Florida. The absolute enforcement of every kind of business in that happy little town.

Saloons, restaurants, cigar and soda water stands were closed. Newsboys and bootblacks were driven off the street.
The Sunday papers were printed and distributed before midnight of Saturday, and every drug store was closed save one, which was forbidden to sell anything but medicine by prescription.

For one day the doctors of divinity and medicine had a complete monopoly of business activity, save and except the railroads, which the city attorney didn't think he had authority to stop.

It seems that this unusual spasm of pious obedience to law was not the result of repentance for wrongs done to the moral ethics of Christian teaching.
Nor was it inspired by a determination to do no more. It was conceived and executed by a man who to the moral harshes who had broken up Sunday business and raised a bunch of gamblers.

Self-imposed obedience to written law and moral habits, backed by such impudent motives, is far more reprehensible than an open violation of the principles ought to be upheld by the strict construction of the law.

SEABREEZE SIFTINGS

The spring exodus still continues, and our population is fast settling down to the usual summer staging. The following residents and visitors have left Seabreeze within the past week: G. N.
Gardner and family; W. J. Gamble and family for Cairo, Mich.; D. E. Arnold, wife and son, for New York City and other points of interest; Mrs. Nellie Dorr and daughter for Chicago; Don Martin for New York City; Wesley Herriek, wife and baby on a visit to relatives in Vermont; Mrs. M. E. Cameron for Washington, D.C.; W. L. Bain and wife for Tal-lula Falls, Ga.; and Mrs. Chas. Hesser for Cincinnati. We speed them along with good wishes, and hope to have them with us again next winter.

The public school bell and flag have at last arrived, and the bell has been placed in position. The children enjoyed their long anticipated basket dinner on the beach north of the Post Pavilion last Thursday.

Assistant Postmaster Williams and wife have set up their household goods in the Barlow cottage, and are cordially at home to their friends after office hours.
Even the monotonous routine of office work cannot dim his smile these days.
Nothing is small or mean "when love is found a way."

"Ye reporters" visited Chas. A. Bal-lough's fine orange grove the other day.
W. D. Howells, the novelist, says that genius is another name for hard work.
If so, Mr. Ballough is a genius. He has done a vast amount of hard work on his place within the past six months, and the results are most encouraging. His trees are in a vigorous condition, and it is not too much to expect a thousand dollar yield from them next year. He has put in an eight horse-power steam engine and two pumps, and both pumps are working at high pressure, sending copious streams of the living waters to the thirsty trees. In passing through the grove we noticed a very small grapefruit tree whose limbs were laden with huge ripe fruit, a tiny green fruit and a blossom. Three generations thriving on one parent stem! Who says that our peninsula is not productive?

But the grove is not Mr. Ballough's only interest at home. We scoured up two or three Belgian hares in our rounds, if "scared" is the right term to use for creatures so gentle that they will not touch your finger tips with their fussy nooses. He has eight of them. There is a little pupy faced dog on the place with whom they actually fraternize, also with the Muscovy ducks and chickens. Speaking of chickens, he has taken two hundred from the incubator this winter, using one of his small outhouses as a brooder, and enclosing about an acre of his grove for their range, he has had splendid success with them. They are now roaming around in various stages of growth, from the fryer to the "weezy teenzy" baby who arrived on the scene of action a few hours before our visit.

They named this little stranger "Accident," as it was the result of a stolen nest by one of his old-fashioned hens, not up to the new ways of propagating her kind. It was baby chick's bed-time before we left and we had the rare fun of bringing in the "round up." It was a beautiful sight to see the hundred motherless darlings march up the long inclined walk and into the brooder.

It is encouraging to learn that "freaks" are not confined to the human family; among the interesting things Mr. Ballough had to relate of his pets was that of the black duck's setting. It seems that she had laid her own eggs and had gone to setting in the regulation way when one of the hens on the place was "obsessed" with the idea that the nest belonged to her, and would sit all day long on the duck's back if not driven off, and if driven off, would return again and again. In order to relieve the embarrassment of the situation Mr. Ballough provided this hen with a nest, and eggs of her own, but she would have none of it, and there they were, on the same nest, when we looked in the duck being pushed considerably to the rear yet, pugnacious as though she meant to hold as much of the ground as she could.

We had a noted ornithologist with us last winter. He sighted one hundred and eighty-one variety of birds. Our debts and underbrush make a happy haven for them. Among the number is a young tribe not unamiable of these blessings, who continually call out to the passerby, "Seabreeze, seabreeze, seabreeze!" Can any other town in Florida claim such proud distinction? Even the birds in the air praise thee, oh Seabreezeby-the-Sea!

May 5th was the 20th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F.
Burgman, and they celebrated the event with a delightful "at home" to about 30 of their special friends. The double portals of their beautiful home were artistically decorated with floral beauties, and a dainty and refreshing repast was served.
The host and hostess were graciously assisted in receiving and entertaining their friends by their winsome daughter, Miss Helen Burgman, and Mrs. Helen Wilhelm-Post, whose popularity in Seabreeze is proverbial. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the delicate attentions lavished by all present upon little Able Lee Stubbs, the sweet baby of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stubbs.

Mrs. J. F. Martin has sold one of her pretty cottages to Frank Lindsay.
Bro. Porter seems to have dropped out of the Stetson-Ford discussion. But his name is still on the University payroll. Since we are scarce nowadays.

logical Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets! They are easy to take and pleasant

Mental

Strain Affected General Health.

Doctor's Doses Weakened Stomach.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured
Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine brings rest and sweet sleep to the tired brain worn out with the cares and anxieties of the sick room.
Read the following:
"I have always been healthy with the exception of a touch of rheumatism since my age came on, up to the time of my husband's last illness some years ago. I assisted in nursing my husband for nearly three months when he departed this life and the mental strain I think caused my trouble. Aside from extreme nervousness my trouble commenced with sore throat and neuralgia. My physician gave me purgative doses which weakened me very much and my stomach for a time seemed inactive. I could strain and the dormant condition of my stomach soon told upon my general health. I had little appetite and was soon forced to stay in bed a greater part of the time. Within a week after the time I began taking Dr.
Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonic I was up about the house. I continued their use until completely cured. My faith in Dr.
Miles' Remedies has been strengthened by experience of other people, our daughter having used Restorative Nervine with splendid results in a case of paralysis and a friend to whom I sent a box of the Anti-Pain Pills reports that she has been completely cured of neuralgia by their use. I know of a number of others whom your medicine has helped in a large degree. I wish you continued success."

Cures When Doctors Fail.
Mrs. Frank Chasson, Patterson, La., writes, June 28th, 1907: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Her-bine, and it helped me. Then I bought two bottles, which completely cured me.
I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c a bottle at Dr. J. M. Jones.

Some people are like clocks. They are always going, and never get anywhere.

Spring Ailments.
There is an aching and tired feeling in the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the whole mind and body needs toning up. The trouble is, that during winter, there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure the secretions, a right exit, and by its tonic effect, fully restore the wasted forces and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at Dr. J. M. Jones.

Milliners ought to have strong brain power. Their work is all head work.

Too Great a Risk.
In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned.
A timely remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. This risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly relieved more pain and suffering and saved the lives of more people than any other medicine in use.
For sale by all druggists.

Greatly Alarmed.

A. P. Burbridge, a student at law in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says greatly alarmed him, causing him to fear that he was in the first stages of consumption. Mr.
Burbridge, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it:
"I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists.

LOOK OUT FOR MALARIA.

An epidemic of Malaria is sure to follow the wet season and the high waters which have prevailed all over the South. Malarial and kindred fevers will develop to an alarming extent.
General health conditions will be bad; every precaution should be taken.

The System Must Especially Be Fortified to Resist Malarial Attacks.

A trial of fifty years has demonstrated that for this emergency, Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic has no equal. Iron is the fighting element in the blood, and the kind of iron supplied by Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is just the kind the system requires to successfully combat malarial conditions. Don't wait until you are attacked. Take it now and fortify yourself; it is an absolute safeguard and, at the same time, it is the best tonic and invigorant for the entire system. On the other hand, quinine disturb the system and its cumulative poison begets greater physical trouble than those it is employed to remedy.
Where a bad case of chronic Malaria already exists, take DR. HARTER'S FEVER and AGUE SPECIFIC. It is guaranteed to cure. Price 50 cents.
BUT IF YOU WILL

"I have used Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic myself and in my family for over twenty-five years, and can heartily recommend it. I regard it as particularly valuable to ward off malarial and ague fevers."

Land and Emigration Agent, Frisco, Texas.

A Farmer Straightened Out.
"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. F. Bayder, of Patton ville, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

People should spend less time scolding and more time teaching their children.

Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box at all druggists.

there are people who are all proud flesh.

World Wide Reputation.
White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it neutralizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves their digestion, and is assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood.

For Those Who Live on Farms.
Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment, always recommended it to my friends, as I am dyspeptic, and is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency.
